All,

Attached is a LCNOI for Starkville/Oktibbeha Industrial Building Pads. There is already a projects in EnSite under AI 77362 MSR108201. They say they sent both LCNOIs in the same envelope so maybe they got mixed up. This one is right next to it owned by the same people; however, they are bidding it out separately and may have different contractors. I believe that for this we usually just give it a different MSR# under the same AI. Please let me know if there are any questions/concerns.

Thank you,
